Eric Abetz

Liberal Workplace Relations
Spokesman. Aged 52
Last seen: 17th July 2010

Description: Eric has been missing since he contradicted Tony Abbott and said the Liberals would 'tweak' the IR laws if elected.

Eric is the author of WorkChoices and advocate for IR de-regulation including cuts to workers' penalty rates and public holiday pay.

His friends in business and the HR Nicholls Society are worried he is being kept under wraps until the polls close.
